which Bogle's celebrated Hyperion Fluid for the hair is held wherever it is known:

Invertool. Sept. 6, 1851.

My Dear Sir—May I trouble you to bring me six bottles of Bogle's Hyperion Fluid, when you next return. If you know Mr. Bogle, you can tell him from me I have used his fluid for some time, and find it the only thing I can get to keep my hair in good condition, and quite free of sourf. I am satisfied that were Bogle's Hyperion Fluid more generally introduced into England, it would fast supersade all other articles manufactured here for similar purposes. Hoping you may have a good run out and home, I am, yours always. The above, with Bogle's Electric Hair Dye, Amole Shaving Cream, Hebesions for the complexion, &c., may be had of the inventor, W.M. BOGLE, No. 27, Washington street, Boston. Also, of A. B. & D.
